

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Socialist meetings tonight follow: 9th ward, West Pullman school, 119th and Parnell av.; Curtiss high school, 114th and State sts.; Melrose Park, Ill., Dinse Hall, Lake and 15th av.; 35th ward, Columbia school, Hancock and Cortland st.; 27th ward, Henry school, St. Louis and Cullom.

Antone Salvage, 6020 S. Keeler av., argued with conductor about transfer. Pickpockets got $106 in currency and $100 check.

John O'Connor, 15, 7142 S. Morgan st., slugged last Thursday, regained consciousness last night. Questioned today.

Five auto bandits robbed saloon of James Minola, 2159 W. Harrison st. Got $65. Went through six customers. $70.

W. C. Robinson, Grinnel, Ia., aviator, to reach Grant Park today. Delayed. Dirty gasoline.

Robert Standish, 6517 Kimbark av., and G. A. Wood, 6235 Kenwood av., held up. $50 and two watches and diamond ring.

Grant Hoeffer, carpenter, insulted by 3 men in front of saloon at 7601 Cottage Grove av. Beaten to death on demand to retract. Police probing.

Star boarder in home of Charles Morris, artist, Evanston, is rat which keeps field mice away. Mr. Rat a benedict.

Mrs. Mary Williams, fortune teller, arrested on complaint of husband. Police matron found $3,100 roll on her.

Three boys up in Boys' Court for trying to emulate "Robin Hood." Held up R. L. Darby, South Chicago, Wednesday night and shot him in the hand. He scared them away.

Mrs. Netha Kutz, 506 N. Clark st., attempted to suicide by gas yesterday because neighbors had slandered her. Serious.

Room of Miss Helen Gilbert, Hotel Metropole, entered by porch climber. $1,000 worth of loot gone.

Charles Erbsstein under care of physician in City Hall Square Hotel. Has bronchitis.

James Carey, 14, 1033 Blue Island av., threw stones in saloon at Jackson blvd. and Plymouth ct. Arrested. Chased out while selling gum.

Ill. State Society of Optometrists to hold 8th annual convention at Hotel Sherman tomorrow.

Mrs. Margaret Ward, maid, Wellington Hotel, badly bruised when struck by Cottage Grove av. car.

Robert Donegan, 425 N. Lawndale av., tripped on board in backyard. Internal injuries. Dead.

Frank Duffy, 2812 Flournoy st., and Sam Costello, 1026 W. Harrison st., arrested for breaking windows of grocery at 712 Gilpin pl.

Michael Kopnick, 1422 W. 14th st., robbed of $2 by 2 boys. Both arrested. Police probing for person who sold them gun.

Max Tscherny, 1634 Blue Island av., who shot and killed Louis Janousek, 72, 2056 W. 19th st., father-in-law, died from bullet he fired into own head.

W. H. Exline, Enid, Okla., lost $18 to men matching pennies in Grant Park.

"Jerry" Maynard, driver hook and ladder company No. 13, made famous by his cooking abilities. Firemen don't carry lunches when he is on duty.

William Kleine, homeless, penniless and hungry, threw brick at window of Stock Yards market, 175 N. 5th av. Got 2 hams. Arrested.

Ella Marazek, 8, 3444 W. 26th st., died under anesthetic when Dr. C. E. Sharp, 2534 S. Lawndale av., was about to remove tonsils. Weak heart.

Fred Bawer, Oakland Farm, Ill., robbed of $25 by two men in front of King's restaurant. Robbers arrested by cops.

Alexander Noyes, financial editor New York Evening Post, to speak before the City Club tomorrow on